10 a.m. ---- First Communion May 23, 2010

The Day of Pentecost, which is May 23rd this year, has been designated as the time when Christ Church will celebrate first Holy Communion for those children who are interested, whether it was actually the 'first' time or not.

Fr. Wrede will give a short session to offer instruction as to what communion is according to scripture and the church, along with practicing altar rail etiquette some time during the week before the 'big day', and on the Pentecost, these children will receive communion first, together at the altar rail, and participate in the service in other ways.

Those parents who are interested in having their children receive instruction for their first Holy Communion are asked to contact the church school teachers or the parish offices and to provide possible dates and times that the child is available for the class.

MEMORIAL DAY OBSERVANCE IN CHRIST CHURCH

Prior to the offertory on Sunday, May 30, we will read the names of those Riverton residents who have died during our nations wars. The Church bell will toll after each name, and then the congregation will sing the hymn “Almighty Father, strong to save” the ‘Navy’ hymn which includes lyrics that acknowledge all the armed services.
