CARIBBEAN RESORT RAFFLE OFFERED AT THE 2010
ST. PAUL'S/PROJECT INTERACTION FALL FUND RAISER

An exciting new feature of this year's St. Paul's/Project Interaction Dinner Dance (November 20th at the Mansion on Main Street in Voorhees) will be the drawing of the names of the winners of two separate week-long vacations in beautiful St. Kitts, in the Caribbean. St. Kitts was a British colony until 1983, remains a member of the Commonwealth and preserves such British traditions as a passion for cricket, stable government and driving on the left. In addition to beautiful white sand beaches, much early colonial architecture has been preserved in the island capital Basseterre. Only 400 chances will be sold at $25 per ticket (3 for $60). Project Interaction will contribute $500 to each winner toward airfare. Tickets are now available through your Project Interaction coordinators: Roger King at the 8:00 service (or at 786-9232) and Keith Betten at the 10:00 service (7861914). Participants need not attend the dinner/dance to win.
